DESCRIPTION

maxviva Technologies GmbH offers tailor-made software solutions for seamless processes in the tourism industry. Our core product maxIBE is a multi-lingual internet booking engine for a continuously changing market. With fully flexible configurations and our expertise, the maxIBE can be adapted to your needs. You decide which fare types, ancillaries, payment methods and price calculations you would like to display in order to increase your revenue. maxIBE JSON-API enables you to intergrate your own business logic and frontend in a short time frame. Our maxConnector aggregates content from Lufthansa Group Direct NDC API through Farelogix, GDS (Amadeus, SABRE), low-cost and charter flights, car rental suppliers, hotel brokers, insurance service providers and various other content in a single standardized interface. You only need one integration to be able to use all services. Take advantage of our industry expertise to realize your ideas with us.
